Enclosure No. 1 3

In the Chief Court of Mysore at Bangalore

the 22nd day of March 1892

In the matter of the suspension of Munsiff Mangapathi Naidu.

Order

The enquiry into the irregular conduct of Munsiff Mangapathi Naidu, as brought to notice, having been entrusted to me, under the provisions of Rule of Practice No. 1158 published with Notification, dated 6th March 1892, I draw up the heads of enquiry as follows:

That Munsiff Mangapathi Naidu acted irregularly in proceeding, without any real necessity therefor to inspect the Village of Nagasandra, in O.S. No. 398 of 1891 on the file of his Court.

2. That the said Munsiff Mangapathi Naidu acted irregularly, and in contravention of the provisions of the Circular Letter of the Chief Court No. 78 of 16th September 1886, in receiving from Yengamma, Plaintiff in that suit through his pleader, money for his expenses of journey, without showing the credit in the accounts of his office or including the amount in the costs of the suit

suit.

3. That the said Munsiff Mangapathi Naidu acted irregularly, in that he proceeded to Raidurga out of the limits of Mysore, in company with the Plaintiff and the Pleader engaged for him in the said suit, when it was still pending before him.

4. That the said Munsiff Mangapathi Naidu acted irregularly and in contravention of the standing orders of Government prohibiting Government Officers from entering into money or other dealings with any person within his jurisdiction, having business in his Court or Office, in buying two female cloths worth 50 Rs from the shop of Jayanti Hivakarayya, and allowing Plaintiff Jenganna in the Suit No. 398 above mentioned, to have the sale debited against him.

5. That the said Munsiff Mangapathi Naidu acted irregularly and in contravention of the standing orders aforementioned, in buying from one Narasingappa in Molkalmuru, within his own jurisdiction a Peetambara on credit

The enquiry will be held in the chief court at Bangalore, on Thursday the 7th day of April 1892, on which date the Munsiff will arrange to have his evidence ready.

Chief
